Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Jack Riehm is retiring from his position as Wildlife Conservation Officer for Region IV for the Department of Game, Fish and Parks, having begun his career 30 years ago in 1957; and,

WHEREAS, Jack's work has provided countless hours of outdoor enjoyment to sportsmen through his conservation diligence and expertise; and,

WHEREAS, Jack's conservation skills have provided wildlife habitat through conservation developments; and,

WHEREAS, Jack's loyalty to the Department of Game, Fish and Parks, its employees and its programs has always been professional and outstanding; and,

WHEREAS, Jack has been an inspiration to his many friends by being a wonderful husband for his wife, Lois, and a loving parent for their two children; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper to gather to honor and give thanks to Jack; and,

WHEREAS, It is also fitting and proper that the citizens of the great state of South Dakota recognize this special occasion and honor Jack L. Riehm:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 9, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I personally commend and salute Jack for diligently pursuing the elusive relationship between wildlife and man.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. LICKEN, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
